News Release

UD'S 'MUSIC SAMPLER 1990' WILL VISIT PRAGUE, VIENNA

DAYTON, Ohio, January 11, 1990--A musical learning tour of two of the world's most honored cities--Prague, Czechoslovakia, and Vienna, Austria--will be led by University of Dayton faculty members George Zimmerman and Edward Hatch from May 13 to 28. The "Music Sampler 1990" trip coincides with music festivals in both cities, featuring concerts, opera, operettas, chamber music, solo recitals and gallery exhibits.

"In both Vienna and Prague, we sense music, history and culture at every turn as we walk the streets and lanes that Mozart, Beethoven, Haydn, Schubert, Freud, Kafka and others once walked," said Zimmerman, founder of the music sampler. "A high point of our stay in Vienna is the Sunday service at the Augustiner church where a full chamber orchestra, chorus and soloists perform a Mozart, Haydn or Schubert Mass during the liturgy."

Cost of the trip is $2,775, subject to change in air fare. The package includes round-trip air transportation, bus fare from Prague to Vienna, lodging for two weeks (double occupancy), two meals per day and morning lectures on the musical life of Prague and Vienna. The number of participants is limited, and reservations will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. A deposit of $1,350 per person is due by Feb. 28.
